1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

1:2 He was with God in the beginning.

1:3 Through him all things were made; without him nothing was made that has been made.

1:4 In him was life, and that life was the light of men.

1:5 The light shines in the darkness, but the darkness has not understood it.

1:12 Yet to all who received him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God -

1:13 children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

1:14 The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us.

We have seen his glory, the glory of the One and Only, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

1:18 No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father's side, has made him known.

1:23 John replied in the words of Isaiah the prophet, "I am the voice of one calling in the desert, 'Make straight the way for the Lord.'"

1:29 The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!

1:51 He then added, "I tell you the truth, you shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

2:16 To those who sold doves he said, "Get these out of here! How dare you turn my Father's house into a market!"

2:19 Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and I will raise it again in three days."

2:22 After he was raised from the dead, his disciples recalled what he had said. Then they believed the Scripture and the words that Jesus had spoken.

2:23 Now while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover Feast, many people saw the miraculous signs he was doing and believed in his name.

2:25 He did not need man's testimony about man, for he knew what was in a man.
